PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I write this, we're just finishing with Festival of Trees, and I hear that we did a good amount of business. I always hate missing FOT, but I enjoy being in San Francisco with my kids for the holiday. That's my trade-off.

I want to thank everyone who worked on FOT. First of all, the organizers: Francie, Sharon and Judy. Obviously, we could not have an FOT booth if it weren't for these people who offer to work on the project. Thanks, also to everyone who made items to sell at the booth. Thank you to the people who worked at the booth on Friday and Saturday, selling all of our quality merchandise to appreciative buyers. I heard that we sold quite a few quilts, and a lot of other items. When we all work together, good things can happen.

And thank you, Marcia Lucini and Joyce Gaudet for working with me on our new project this year, the small decorated Christmas tree. It turned out to be fun to work on it. I had thought I might have to do it on my own. But more hands and more heads came up with much better ideas than I would have had on my own! ~ Jan Carter

Volunteering

This is a little story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody, and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that because it was Everybody's job.

Everybody thought that Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have done.

I'm sure you've all heard this anecdote/poem. Let's think about it for a moment. "Anybody" could have done the important job. (Subtext: it didn't take the smartest, most talented, best organized person to do it--just Anybody.) "Everybody" was sure that "Somebody" would do it. In the end, "Nobody" did the job. I'm afraid this might be happening in our guild right now, but I don't like to see it. And I also don't like to see just a few people taking on many, many different roles, because no one else will help.

The people who are officers and committee chairs are the "same old ones" who do the jobs over and over. They do that because no new people are stepping up to the jobs. It's really not a fair situation. An organization cannot survive like that. An organization with only a few of the people doing the bulk of the work cannot sustain itself. The few people who are working will become burned out and tired and will stop doing the job. If no one steps up, the job simply will not get done.

That is what we are facing right now with the Program Committee. The situation has been "hinted" at before. We've been told at more than a few meetings that we literally will not have any programs, speakers, or classes in 2017 unless "Somebody" does the job. There have been suggestions that a couple people together can do the job as a team. No response. You may remember that it has also been "hinted" that our treasurer has been doing her job for many, many years and could use a little relief. The situation has been demonstrated by one president giving officers/committee chairs different hats to symbolize the many jobs each one does. Another president showed this by giving each volunteering person a wooden rose for each job they do. We saw some people receive many hats and many roses!

Things cannot continue in this way. I want to emphasize that Now Is The Time to step up and take on a new job. Don't be afraid! I know that sometimes I've thought I couldn't do a certain job that was asked of me, but when I went ahead and tackled it, I found I could do it. I found it was easier than I thought, and that there were people available to help me when I had questions. It stretched me and made me more confident.

I don't want to do any more pleading to get volunteers for jobs. We have a wonderful guild full of very good, talented, and capable people. Be "Somebody" and take on a new job. You can call me at 785-1976 to offer your services, or with any questions. "Operators are standing by to take your calls!" ~Jan Carter

PPQG's TREE AT FESTIVAL OF TREES

This year GAC asked special Interest groups and businesses throughout the area to decorate a tree for FESTIVAL OF TREES. GAC provided the trees. Each representative would decorate their tree which would be on display. Our tree was named "A Stitch in Time". Visitors could purchase the decorated tree by bidding on the tree. The group who had the tree with the highest bid would receive a monetary award from GAC. You could also vote for "your favorite tree". Again the group with the tree getting the most votes would receive a monetary award from GAC.

As mentioned before, decorations for PPQG's tree were made by Jan Carter, Joyce Gaudet and Marcia Luchini. Marcia received the tree from GAC and did the final decorating. The tree looked GREAT! I don't know the final results, but many voted for our tree and I believe the last bid on our tree was $165. Stay tuned for a confirmation of the final results.

FUND RAISING: FESTIVAL OF TREES

START YOUR ENGINES....
GET READY... GET SET... SEW.....!!!

We had a great sale, we sold about $4000+ at Festival of Trees! We'll see what the final revenue equals after GAC pays the sales tax, deducts the cost for credit card sales and their 20%. We probably sold 25 quilts total, 19 were sold on Friday alone. We'd hang a quilt, someone would buy it, we'd take it down, put up another quilt and someone wanted to buy it. We did that all day Friday. Saturday sales were much slower and people seemed to be more conservative in their purchases, but the bottom line was wonderful. We sold almost all of the potholders, and have very few hot/cold bowls left (mostly the small ones). We talked to two ladies who were interested in the Guild and may be visiting one of our meetings next year. We had a special request for an I-spy quilt. We sold all of the I-spy quilts by the time she arrived at the sale. One "entertaining" fella came in specifically to buy 4 quilts. He wanted them about the same size and he was particularly thrilled with the I-spy quilts. The "chicken" quilt that Pat Connell made and showed at the guild meeting sold within the first 20 minutes. We were constantly moving things around because our tables and the walls were looking bare. Several people came to our booth in particular to shop because, they said, "you always have such great stuff". It is tiring, but fun at the same time, especially to see people so pleased with what they are buying. Sharon, Francie and I will be doing an inventory on Monday so we know exactly what remains. Then we will re-group and send out requests for items for next year.

Thank you to all who made items for the booth, especially Pat Connell for making 10+ quilts, and to those who assisted in our sales booth: Don and Laura Hamilton, Sandy Hughes, Marcia Luchini, Kathy Kinghorn, Pam Todd, Julie Verran, Barbara Dunsmoor, Carole Garcia, Cheryl Harris, Cheryl Faconti, Marianne Rittenhouse, Joanne Corey, Molly Buckley, Linda Warnock, Gail Spencer, Francie Angwin and Sharon Moreland. A special Thank You to Francie, Sharon M. Sandy Hughes, Marcia and Torrey Luchini and Larry Riddle for set up and take down, and to Francie and Joe Angwin for the display racks and display accessories. WE HAD A GREAT SALE!! GET READY FOR NEXT YEAR!

“Helpful Hint”

Here’s a “helpful hint” that someone suggested I put in the Newsletter. I read it somewhere. I save the little dessicant packets that sometimes come in vitamin and pill bottles. I put them in my containers that hold my pins. Anything that might help prevent rust in this environment is worth a try!

VERY IMPORTANT

Still in need of a Program Chair or 2 Co-chairs for the 2017 year. Trust me this cannot be done on the fly or make it up as you go. Programs need to be set and contracts mailed no later than August 2016 (and that's late). Why? Because you have to look at the availability of the lecturers and instructors. Sometimes a call out to the surrounding guilds glean another gig for your presenter and the transportation costs can be shared. The prices of the workshops need to be worked up and the projected income from those classes forwarded to the treasurer for the GAC budget that needs to be submitted in September. I will see Scott and set the dates for 2017. I will include at least one 3 day event. Why do this now? Because it is so much easier to be gracious and give up a date than to beg for one more. Add to this I'm still on the right side of the dirt and can assist you in the planning, pricing, contracting and the ways of GAC.

No Program Chair(s) = No Program.
Sounds decidedly dull to me. ~Kalyln Oleson

PROGRAM CALENDAR 2015

Lynne Pullis gave a wonderful lecture at the November 20 Guild meeting entitled "My Journey to Mechanical Quilts", showing her style of quilting techniques and a history of how she started and developed her method.

PROGRAM CALENDAR: 2016

Once again the early deadlines to sign up for classes is in accord with our updated contract.

Here is the tentative 2016 program. Prices are not established yet.
